

MUSEUM EDUCATOR, Part-Time $16.50 per hour

Are you an enthusiastic educator that can help students soar in STEM? Apply to be a Museum Educator at Pearl Harbor Aviation Museum. The Museum Educator supports planning and delivering high-quality education programs to Museum students and visitors. Additionally, the Museum Educator provides logistical and administrative support for programs and projects and collaborates effectively across departments to accomplish established goals.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Provides instruction and administrative support for STEM summer camps, the Aviation Learning Center and other events and education programs
- Assists visitors in exhibit galleries, operates simulators and conducts presentations and/or tours. All training provided
- Participates as part of the curriculum development team
- Assists departmental staff in planning, evaluation, and administrative duties
- Develops positive and effective working relationships with colleagues and partners

Qualifications:

- Experience working with children or youth in a summer camp, school, museum or other informal education team is required. Respects children and youth and enjoys working with them. Exhibits patient, kind, and consistent behavior with students of all learning styles, abilities, backgrounds, and temperaments
- Works responsibly and efficiently both independently and also as a productive team member
- Deals professionally and sensitively with diverse constituents within the Museum and the community.

Mission:

Our mission is to steward America's first aviation battlefield of World War II – sharing the artifacts, personal stories, the impact and response to the attack on December 7, 1941 and the Pacific region battles that followed – and to honor those who have defended our freedom so we might educate and inspire future generations.

Values:

We are a professional team that builds trusting and respectful relationships.

We demonstrate personal leadership and integrity in all that we do.

We are creative and collaborative problem solvers.

We hold each other accountable for our common outcomes.

We are committed to continuous improvement.
